

I support the FCC delegating authority to New York State to realign area codes in order to meet the community needs. I would urge the commission to approve the delegation.